CHAPTER III PROTECTION OF TRADE SECRETS

Article 9 - 2 (Certification of Original Document of Trade Secrets) (1) In order to have an electronic document certified as to whether it is an original document containing trade secrets, a person who possesses trade secrets may file for registration of the unique identification value extracted from the relevant electronic document (hereinafter referred to as "electronic fingerprint") with an agency that certifies the original documents of trade secrets under Article 9 - 3.

(2) Where the electronic fingerprint registered under paragraph (1) and the electronic fingerprint extracted from the electronic document kept by a person who possesses trade secrets are the same, an agency that certifies the original documents of trade secrets under Article 9 - 3 may issue a certificate verifying that the relevant electronic document is the original registered with the electronic fingerprint (hereinafter referred to as "certificate of the original document").

(3) A person who has been issued with a certificate of the original document under paragraph (2), shall be deemed to possess the information as stated in the relevant electronic document as at the time the electronic fingerprint referred to in paragraph (1) is registered. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 13081, Jan. 28, 2015>

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 11963, Jul. 30, 2013]

Article 9 - 3 (Designation, etc. of Original Document Certification Agency) (1) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may designate a person who has the expertise in the duties of certifying electronic documents containing trade secrets as the original by using electronic fingerprints (hereinafter referred to as "duties of certifying original documents"), as an agency that certifies the original documents of trade secrets (hereinafter referred to as "original document certification agency") in consultation with the Minister of Small and Medium - Sized Enterprises (SMEs) and Startups. <Amended by Act No. 14839, Jul. 26, 2017>

(2) A person who intends to be designated as an original document certification agency shall file an application therefor with the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office after fulfilling the requirements for professional manpower, facilities, etc. prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(3) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may fully or partially subsidize the expenses required by an original document certification agency to perform the duties of certifying original documents.

(4) In order to ensure the safety and reliability of performance of duties of certifying original documents, an original document certification agency shall comply with the matters prescribed by Presidential Decree with respect to the following:

1. Extraction, registration, and safekeeping of electronic fingerprints;
2. Certification of original documents of trade secrets and the issuance of certificates of original documents;
3. Management of professional manpower and protection of facilities necessary for performing the duties of certifying original documents;
4. Operation, management, etc. of other duties of certifying original documents.

(5) Matters necessary for the criteria and procedures for the designation of an original document certification agency shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 11963, Jul. 30, 2013]

Article 9 - 4 (Corrective Orders, etc. to Original Document Certification Agency) (1)

Where an original document certification agency falls under any of the following cases, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may order it to take corrective measures within a fixed period not exceeding six months:

1. Where it does not satisfy the requirements prescribed in Article 9 - 3 (2) any more after having been designated as an original document certification agency;
2. Where it fails to comply with the matters prescribed by Presidential Decree under Article 9 - 3 (4).

(2) Where an original document certification agency uses the subsidy granted under Article 9 - 3 (3) for purposes other than the intended, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may order it to return the subsidy within a fixed period.

(3) Where an original document certification agency falls under any of the following cases, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may revoke the designation or may order it to fully or partially suspend the duties of certifying original documents for a fixed period not exceeding six months: Provided, That in the case of subparagraph 1 or 2, the designation shall be revoked:

1. Where the agency is designated by fraud or other improper means;

2. Where a person who has been ordered to fully or partially suspend the duties of certifying original documents performs the duties of certifying original documents in violation of such order;
3. Where the agency fails to commence the performance of duties of certifying original documents within six months from the date on which it is designated as an original document certification agency or discontinues the performance of duties of certifying original documents for at least six consecutive months, without good reason;
4. Where the agency fails to comply with the corrective order issued under paragraph (1) without good reason;
5. Where the agency fails to comply with the order to return the subsidy issued under paragraph (2).

(4) An original document certification agency whose designation has been revoked under paragraph (3), shall hand over the records related to the duties of certifying original documents, such as registered electronic fingerprints and other records on the registration of electronic fingerprints, to another original document certification agency designated by the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office within three months from the date on which the designation is revoked: Provided, That where the agency is unable to hand over the records concerning the duties of certifying original documents for any unavoidable reason, such as the rejection of the takeover thereof by another original document certification agency, it shall notify such fact to the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office without delay.

(5) Where an original document certification agency whose designation has been revoked under paragraph (3), fails to hand over the records related to the duties of certifying original documents or to notify the fact that it is unable to hand over the records, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may issue an order to correct it.

(6) Detailed standards and procedures for the dispositions under paragraph (3) and matters necessary for the handover and takeover under paragraph (4) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 11963, Jul. 30, 2013]

Article 9 - 5 (Penalty Surcharges) (1) Where the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office is to issue an order for suspension of duties under Article 9 - 4 (3) and such suspension of duties is likely to cause severe inconvenience to persons who utilize the relevant original document certification agency or cause harm to public interest, he/she may impose a penalty surcharge not exceeding 100 million won in lieu of the suspension order.

(2) Where a person who is subject to the imposition of penalty surcharge under paragraph (1), fails to pay the penalty surcharge by the due date, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall collect it in the same manner as delinquent national taxes are collected.

(3) The amount of a penalty surcharge and the method of calculation thereof according to the types and gravity of violations subject to the imposition of penalty surcharges under paragraph (1), and other necessary matters shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 11963, Jul. 30, 2013]

Article 9 - 6 (Hearings)

If the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office intends to revoke the designation or order the suspension of duties under Article 9 - 4 (3), he/she shall hold a hearing.

CHAPTER IV SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 14 - 2 (Presumption, etc. on the Amount of Damage) (1) Where a person whose business interests have been infringed by an act of unfair competition, a violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, claims compensation for damage under Article 5 or 11; and where the person who has infringed the business interests transfers the goods causing the act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets; the amount calculated by multiplying the transferred amount in subparagraph 1 by the presumed profit per unit in subparagraph 2, may be set as damages for the person whose business interest has been infringed. In such cases, the amount of damage may not exceed an amount calculated by multiplying the estimated profit per unit by the number of articles that the person whose business interest has been infringed could have produced, subtracted by the number of units actually sold: Provided, That where a person whose business interest has been infringed was unable to sell the product for reasons other than the act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, a sum calculated according to the number of articles subject to the reasons shall be deducted: <Amended by Act No. 10810, Jun. 30, 2011 >

1. The amount of goods transferred;
2. Profit per unit quantity of the goods that a person whose business interest has been infringed would have been able to sell, if there had been no such act of unfair competition, violence referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets.

(2) Where a person whose business interests have been infringed by an act of unfair competition, violence referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, claims compensation for damage under Article 5 or 11, the profits gained by the infringer through the infringement, if any, are presumed to be the amount of damage suffered by the person whose business interests have been infringed.

<Amended by Act No. 10810, Jun. 30, 2011>

(3) Where a person whose business interests have been infringed by an act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, claims compensation for damage under Article 5 or 11, he/she may claim as damages the amount of money that the person would normally be entitled to receive for using a mark applied to goods if the mark was the object of an act of unfair competition or a violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or for using trade secrets that were the object of the infringement.<Amended by Act No. 10810, Jun. 30, 2011>

(4) Where the amount of actual damage caused by an act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets exceeds the amount under paragraph (3), the excess amount may also be claimed as compensation for damage. In such cases, when awarding damages, the court may consider whether the person who has infringed the business interest was willful or grossly negligent.<Amended by Act No. 10810, Jun. 30, 2011>

(5) Where the court recognizes in litigation the extreme difficulty, owing to the nature of the case, of proving the amount of damage that has occurred related to an act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, the court may determine a reasonable amount on the basis of the entire tenor of oral proceedings and the results of evidence investigations, notwithstanding paragraphs (1) through (4).<Amended by Act No. 10810, Jun. 30, 2011>

[\[This Article Wholly Amended by Act No. 8767, Dec. 21, 2007\]](#)

Article 14 - 3 (Submission of Materials)

In litigation related to the infringement of business interests through an act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, the court may, upon the request of either party, order the other party to submit materials necessary for the assessment of damage caused by the infringement: Provided, That the same shall not apply where the holder of such materials has a good reason for the refusal of the submission thereof. <Amended by Act No. 10810, Jun. 30, 2011 >

[This Article Wholly Amended by Act No. 8767, Dec. 21, 2007]

- Article 14 - 4 (Confidentiality Order) (1) In litigation related to the infringement of business interests through an act of unfair competition, violation referred to in Article 3 - 2 (1) or (2), or infringement of trade secrets, where the relevant party has verified the accuracy of both of the following information as to the trade secrets held by him/her, the court may order, by decision, the other party (in cases of a juristic person, its representative), the relevant party's legal counsel, or any other person who has acquired such trade secrets due to said litigation neither to use such trade secrets for purposes other than for continuing said litigation nor to disclose such secrets to persons other than those who have been ordered in relation to such secrets pursuant to this paragraph, upon the request of the relevant party: Provided, That the same shall not apply where the other party (in cases of a juristic person, its representative), the relevant party's legal counsel, or any other person who has acquired the trade secrets due to said litigation has already been aware of such secrets by a method other than inspection of the legal brief or investigation of the evidence as referred to in subparagraph 1 as at the time such request is made:
1. That the legal brief already submitted or to be submitted or the evidence already investigated or to be investigated contains trade secrets;
 2. The business secrets referred to in subparagraph 1, if used or disclosed for purposes other than for conducting said litigation, are likely to impede the business operation of the relevant party, so that it is required to place a restriction on the use or disclosure of such trade secrets in order to prevent the impediment.
